Besides getting good grades, paying attention in class can pay your tuition. Make Money on the Nights and Weekends Do you work a traditional 9 to 5 job? For many people, the only time to hustle is on the nights and weekends. Become a mystery shopper Maybe you are detail oriented and recognize good service when you see it. Businesses want feedback from mystery shoppers. You provide an honest review of the shopping experience. Legit mystery shopping companies pay well for your feedback. This is a good way to get paid for doing stuff you do each day. You get paid to visit retail stores and restaurants. Check out Best Mark or Market Force to see what options are in your town. Collect and sell scrap metal Scrap metal recyclers often pay good cash for scrap metal. Busy homeowners want someone to haul off their old appliances. You can take scrap metal such as old washers and dryers off of their hands. If you have a truck or trailer, look for people with scrap metal. First, check Craigslist for open requests. After the pickup, go to the nearest scrap recycling plant. Sell plasma Although donating plasma has a bad rap, any healthy adult can do it. Local plasma centers accept plasma from any healthy adult. Donating plasma can provide a small weekly income. Since you can donate two days a week, you can get paid each week. Start a fitness club Many people want to get fit but starting their own club overwhelms them. Maybe you can form a hiking, biking or another exercising club. Doing so means you can provide a need for people. As a reward, you earn money and get fit at the same time. Sell your stuff Got too much stuff? Use your nights to clean out your closets. On the weekends, sell your unwanted items at garage sales. Spring, summer and fall are usually the best months for garage sales. Waiting too long means you may have to lower prices to make a sale. You can still sell it online via Decluttr or Letgo. Distribute flyers for local companies Many local companies use paper flyers to advertise. Restaurants and service companies come to mind first. They need trustworthy people to deliver flyers and papers for them. Maybe, you can be that trusty person they need! Look for ads in local papers and on Craigslist to find jobs in this genre. The old-fashioned paper route still provides income for thousands of people. Every paper has a different publishing schedule. Some deliver seven days a week. But, other papers may only deliver three days a week. Maybe you want a quiet job in the early morning hours. If so, a paper route might be for you. This way, you can both make some extra money! Find a job as a valet High-end restaurants and clubs often seek out safe drivers for valet services. If you fit this description, consider working as a valet. And, think of all the cool cars you can say you drive! Deliver pizzas Many people have gotten out of debt by delivering pizzas. And, many people who need extra money have too! Whatever your reason, this is a fun job. Because you earn tips, you can make more than other restaurant jobs too. Similar to delivering pizzas, you can deliver for DoorDash. You get paid to deliver online orders for many restaurants. If you make different life choices, you can save hundreds of dollars each month. In some cases, you can save thousands of dollars each month! The ideas may sound radical at first. But, making these choices are how so many people stop struggling to pay the bills. Here are some ways you can simplify and earn some extra coin in the process. Sell your car If you live in a city, sell your car and walk or use public transit. For those rare times you need a car, rent one. After the trade, use the extra cash to pay off debt or build your savings account. Selling your car for some fast cash is one way to put money in your pocket. This is because cars cost thousands of dollars and many people buy used cars. Downsize your housing Can you make do with a smaller room, apartment or house? If so, see if you can find cheaper housing to cut down on housing costs. When you have your own apartment, switch to a 2-bedroom and get a roommate. Perhaps you could trade in your big house for something smaller. Sell your gold or other jewelry Sometimes, you need to look in the mirror to make money. Selling gold and unwanted jewelry may put some fast cash in your pocket. Pawn shops or jewelry shops will often buy your fine jewelry from you. For more money, you may try selling to private buyers. However, it can take longer to make a sale. Sell clothing you no longer wear Do you have a closet overflowing with clothes and shoes? Perhaps the minimalist approach is your best option. You can scale down your wardrobe by selling the items you no longer want.

First, try selling local at a garage sale or a consignment shop. By selling local, you get extra cash without paying shipping fees. Maybe you have an attic or off-site locker. To start, see what you can find in your attic or garage. Hopefully, you have items that can sell for a great price. Here are some fun ways you can get a decent side income. Since the pay is fair and the hours can be long, some call this job thankless. However, being an extra in a movie is a unique side gig. To live the Hollywood life for a day, look for movie casting calls. Participate in research studies Dozens of companies conduct research studies to test their products. Some of the paid studies you can participate in include: The company was testing their medical shears. Research studies pay more than other common online surveys. But, they accept fewer participants. If you like being a guinea pig, look for these studies. You can look for local research studies. Another option is applying for focus groups on Survey Junkie. This is a fun way to earn some extra money in your spare time. Rent ad space on your car Ever see those cars and trucks driving in your city with ads plastered all over them? A company like Carvertise places ads on your car. Once they put the ads on your car, you go about your daily driving business. The more you drive, the more money you make! Contact your local recreation leagues to learn about available jobs. Be a personal assistant People want to hire personal assistants for many reasons. They may need help with these tasks: Daily chores Running errands Having a person to talk to Maybe, you can post an ad like this recent Craigslist ad in my area.
