As explained in the course description, in order to successfully complete the course, your active involvement in learning is essential. Attendance in the course will be taken both in lecture and in discussion sections starting with week 3. Students that know ahead of time that they have an existing or potential conflict with the class must inform their instructor in the first two weeks of the semester using the absence appeals form. Furthermore, students can appeal during week 9 and 10, as well as week 14 and 15 to their instructor using the appeals form provided below. In cases when the instructor cannot determine whether or not the reason is compelling, the instructor will forward the appeal to the director of undergraduate studies, who will decide. The homework assignments for the lectures in a given week are due the following Tuesday. For example, homework 1 covering sections 2. Written homework will be submitted on Gradescope. Daily WebAssign Homework is due the day of the following lecture day at One will be graded per week, except for weeks with exams. Please also read the required attendance policy. Students are expected to be present for all exams. Do not schedule travel on an exam date. The Makeup Policy can only be applied for exams in case of a verifiable emergency or a formal request by the UIC athletic department. Students are expected to obtain prior permission for an absence from the instructor. In all cases, the student must provide written documentation when attempting to secure this permission. Documentation from the student health service, or its equivalent from a doctor or hospital, etc. Each instructor will establish their own Make-up Policy for homework. Academic Integrity Policy As an academic community, UIC is committed to providing an environment in which research, learning, and scholarship can flourish and in which all endeavors are guided by academic and professional integrity. All members of the campus community - students, staff, faculty, and administrators - share the responsibility of insuring that these standards are upheld so that such an environment exists. Instances of academic misconduct by students will be handled pursuant to the Student Disciplinary Policy: Religious Holidays Students who wish to observe their religious holidays shall notify the faculty member by the tenth day of the semester of the date when they will be absent unless the religious holiday is observed on or before the tenth day of the semester. The faculty member shall make every reasonable effort to honor the request, not penalize the student for missing the class, and if an examination or project is due during the absence, give the student an exam or assignment equivalent to the one completed by those students in attendance. Freedom from discrimination is a foundation for all decision making at UIC. Students are also urged to read the document "Public Formal Grievance Procedures". Information on these policies and procedures is available on the University web pages of the Office of Access and Equity:
