

Chapter 1 : Heartless Abduction by Angela Wells - FictionDB

Billionaire Raul Farrington is certain Nella Preston is the heartless hussy who married his younger brother to gain access to his bank account. Raul virtually kidnaps Nella from her brother's society party by threatening her brother's budding political career.

The group further said that: This heartless and calamitous but avoidable abduction of school girls is utterly condemnable in its entirety, especially as it happened when some of the students were observing their Maghrib sunset prayers, others were breaking their voluntary fast and many others were at the dining hall for supper. Meaning they were relaxed and comfortable so oblivious of the tragedy awaiting them. There must be blame for this, and no one found culpable in this gross negligence should be spared. In fact, a serious government would have by now put in jail and suspended all negligent security and political chiefs who could and should have protected these innocent children, rather than the rigmarole setting up of an investigative panel. Since the unfortunate occurrence of the abduction, JNI has been following with keen interest events as they unfold in Dapchi. With nostalgia discerning minds could recall that the Chibok abduction is almost four years now. Is the Chibok girls debacle so long ago in our memory that we have not learnt anything from it? Furthermore, is this abduction not a near confirmation of the rumour making the rounds that security operatives do not want the war on Boko Haram to end because of the pecuniary benefits they derive therefrom? Are there orchestrated plans somewhere to make a case for more security votes? If there is worse outcome than the abduction itself, it is the fact that this is the most potent action to frustrate girl-child education in Northern Nigeria, despite the many enrolment campaign efforts for female education. No parent now is comfortable especially in the North East to allow his daughter to go to such callously unprotected schools. And the North is the loser! Therefore, this is a wakeup call to the quiescent northern governors. All of us as parents are still in shock. How come they were not prevented or intercepted? Does it mean that when they were coming no security or informants provided any hint? And that no one must discover your methods. Indeed there is much more than meets the eye in the way this Boko Haram insurgency is now being handled! This is so because before now, the major concern of the citizens of the BAY States Borno, Adamawa and Yobe has been that any time people provided information on suspected insurgents, the informants are hunted down and many killed within the next 24 hours. In the same vein, the people and Government of Yobe state should not despair; Allah shall continue to be their strength in-sha-Allah. In light of the above, we call on Government at all levels to do everything possible and as a matter of urgency use any means possible to return our Dapchi and Chibok daughters. Enough should be enough! Government must spare no effort to immediately return all our abducted daughters of Chibok, Dapchi and other places. And then an example must be set – heads must roll for this negligence. Similarly, supplications in Sujood prostrating position in all circumstances are also paramount; All female secondary schools in the BAY states should be provided with maximum security; The remaining final year Dapchi students should be encouraged to write their respective WAEC and NECO exams, even if it be through an arrangement, in another environment.
