An enchanting introduction to Madeira. Excellence in careful detail and knowledgeable journalism exercised by skillful writers and photographers in a remarkable collaborative effort. The in-depth articles about several subject matters, especially the whale hunting, is fascinating. Probably the best guide to what makes Madeira so special!. If you plan to stay for a longer time than the typical jaunt of one or two weeks exercised by most tourists and intend to stay for a few months or longer then this book is suited to your needs. It is not a quick guide nor a historical thesis, but a visual and interesting journey into places, themes and activities you might not have thought to look deeper into.
