

Chapter 1 : Bar Review Qbank Practice Questions | Kaplan Test Prep

All states and territories except Louisiana and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico subscribe to the Multistate Bar Exam (MBE), which is a standardized set of multiple-choice questions usually taken on the first day of the state bar examination.

There will be 40 questions. Some of the questions will be MPRE type questions that ask you to apply the Model Rules to a hypothetical fact pattern; see for example sample questions 1 and 2, below. You will need to know the content of the Model Rules assigned for the course but are not expected to identify them by rule number. Some questions will test knowledge and comprehension of court decisions and other materials assigned for reading, for example sample question 3. Many of the questions will be based on fact patterns from the Exercises and Case Studies and will focus on ethical issues related to them discussed in class and in the writing assignments. Sample question 4 is an example of a question that requires both a good understanding of the Model Rules and one of the Case Studies. The use of the word "proper" is characteristic of the MPRE, which defines "proper" as asking "whether the conduct referred to or described in the question is professionally appropriate in that it would not subject the lawyer to discipline, is not inconsistent with the Preamble, Comments or text of the ABA Model Rules of Professional Conduct, and is not inconsistent with generally accepted principles of the law of lawyering. Then go back and review the questions by referring to relevant assigned readings and exercises. Do not be discouraged if you conclude that your initial answer was incorrect; this just will give you some idea of the amount of preparation you need for the exam. In class I will review the correct answers, which will then be posted on the web site and linked below where indicated. Attorney Alpha currently represents Builder, a building contractor and the plaintiff in a suit to recover for breach of a contract to build a house. Builder also has pending before the zoning commission a petition to rezone property Builder owns. Builder is represented by Attorney Beta in the zoning matter. Neighbor knows that Alpha represents Builder in the contract action. Is it proper for Alpha to represent Neighbor in the zoning matter? Yes, if there is no common issue of law or fact between the two matters. Yes, because one matter is a judicial proceeding and the other is an administrative proceeding. No, because Alpha is currently representing Builder in the contract action. No, if there is a possibility that both matters will be appealed to the same court. Client carried automobile liability insurance with Insko, an insurance company. Client, while driving his car, was involved in a collision with Driver. Driver filed suit against Client. Attorney found evidence that Client had intentionally run into Driver. Even though the Schlesinger law firm in Nissan Motor Corporation v Orozco had hired Paul Buechele, whose prior firm had represented the defendant in the same case, it was not disqualified from representing the plaintiff because: After joining the Schlesinger firm, Buechele was screened from any participation in the Orozco case. Because the Schlesinger firm fired Buechele after the disqualification motion was filed. All of the above. This question refers to the Baby Jessica case. John Monroe, who handled the adoption in Iowa, made the following decision that was consistent with the Model Rules: To withdraw when it appeared that he would be a witness. To advise Cara to seek independent legal advice before signing the adoption paperwork in the hospital C.

The Multistate Bar Examination (MBE) is a six-hour, question multiple-choice examination developed by NCBE and administered by every jurisdiction except Louisiana as part of the bar examination on the last Wednesday in February and the last Wednesday in July of each year.

The exam is divided into morning and afternoon testing sessions of three hours each, with questions in each session. There are no scheduled breaks during either the morning or afternoon session. The scored questions on the MBE are distributed evenly, with 25 questions from each of the seven subject areas: Each of the questions on the MBE is followed by four possible answers. Examinees should choose the best answer from the four stated alternatives. Each question on the MBE is designed to be answered according to generally accepted fundamental legal principles, unless noted otherwise in the question. Examinees should mark only one answer for each question; multiple answers will be scored as incorrect. Scores are based on the number of questions answered correctly. Points are not subtracted for incorrect answers. All answers must be marked on the answer sheet within the three-hour time limit. Once time is called, examinees must put down their pencils; no more marks or erasures are allowed. Examinees will receive credit only for those answers marked on the answer sheet. No additional time will be allowed to transfer answers from a test booklet to an answer sheet, and only answer sheets will be scored. The annotations explain why each answer choice is correct or incorrect. Examinees can take the practice exam timed or untimed, receive feedback on their answers, and obtain a customized report designed to help identify strengths and weaknesses in six MBE subject areas: Purchasing an MBE-OPE gives an examinee a subscription for unlimited online access to the exam for one year after the date of purchase. Questions are grouped by subject; each group of questions is prefaced by the relevant section of the Subject Matter Outline and followed by an answer key. Due to changes in the law since the time the questions appeared on an exam, the questions and their keys may no longer be current. The question format may also be outdated. Because these questions are outdated, NCBE does not recommend their use but nevertheless makes them available because the questions may still be in use by commercial bar review courses under a licensing agreement with NCBE. These publications include answer keys but do not offer annotations. In addition, they do not include Civil Procedure questions. MBE administered in February

Please use the Contact form , or send us an email at barprephero gmail. While writing the books, I received advice from a psychologist who told me that stories are easier to remember than rules. So for each tested bar topic, I included a case that reflects a story relating to the rule. BarPrepHero is the only test site that I have participated in which explains virtually all of its answers with a related case, and as such provides a mechanism for retaining rules through stories. Five stars in my book! I have taken and passed the California bar exam previously and I am studying for the Tennessee bar exam currently. I feel that the questions provided are not as difficult as the actual MBE questions on the exam, but they are an excellent refresher and a wonderful study aid. I am currently a paralegal student, and have always wanted to know how I would perform on the bar multi choice section. Even mistaken answers become learning tools due to your highly instructive and nicely detailed answer sections. I have recommended your site to an attorney who has moved here from another state, and is now preparing for the Maryland Bar Exam. I can not thank you guys enough for your efforts in creating your site, I am very pleased with the level of confidence I have found in myself, by getting the number of correct answers as I have so far. Always wanted to know, and you guys are providing the challenge. Thanks, and please keep the questions coming. The explanations and cited cases is a huge plus. I think that they are good sharpening analytical skills. Keep up the good work here! I will visit often. One of my classmates recommended this to me. This gave me the inspiration to further my research in law. The Bar Exam is a two-day bar examination administered by a committee or board of bar examiners before a license to practice law can be issued to each applicant. The Bar Exam is administered in each state or territory of the United States, usually twice per year, on the last Wednesday in February and on the last Wednesday in July. What is taking the Bar Exam really like? What is the MBE? It is a standardized set of multiple-choice questions covers all seven legal practice areas: The questions are administered in two sessions: About the Bar Exam In each state or territory of the United States, a committee or board of bar examiners regulates the issuance of licenses to practice law. The committee or board of bar examiners administers a two-day bar examination to each license applicant. The substance of the testing and the qualifications for admission differ from state to state. The American bar examination is usually given twice per year, on the last Wednesday in February and on the last Wednesday in July. The bar exam results are usually posted online by the Supreme Courts for thirty days after the date their release is ordered. The tentative date of their release including the MBE score is announced at the bar examination. The UBE tests knowledge of general principles of law, legal analysis and reasoning, and communication skills. It has been adopted in 25 states and the District of Columbia. The MPT consists of two minute items. Not every jurisdiction requires the MPT. Twice Per Year The bar examination is usually given twice per year, on the last Wednesday in February and on the last Wednesday in July. There are four possible answers; you must choose the best answer under the given circumstances. Covers 7 Areas Of The Law The MBE covers constitutional law, real property and torts, criminal law and procedure, civil procedure, evidence, and contracts. There are four possible answers. The MBE instructions tell you to apply fundamental legal principles that are typically accepted in that area of the law. The questions are set up to test your ability to select the best answer from several possibilities. Thus, the MBE tests your knowledge and ability to apply the broad legal principles of our body of jurisprudence to legal issues. The MBE questions evaluate and test your ability to think like a lawyer and conduct legal problem-solving in a focused manner. Bar Exam Day Two: It is even ranked as one of the most challenging law exams in the world. These questions include a substantial number of essay questions that are based on hypothetical situations. You will be asked to resolve the issues raised in each hypothetical situation by supplying an answer in the form of an essay. This legal problem-solving process is what attorneys do on a daily basis. Some states require standardized essay questions and other standardized test questions on the second day of the bar examination. This testing is prepared by the National Conference of Bar Examiners, the same organization that supplies the multiple-choice questions for the MBE. No Retired Bar Exam Questions We do not use past exam questions from prior years because the answers may have become outdated due to new or evolving legal principles, and will not help pass the exam. Detailed Rationales With Citations We provide the student with a detailed explanation in support of the correct answer, including updated citations to applicable statutory and case law. Most US law schools only teach common law, but they do not prepare law students for any particular bar exam. Just a few law schools offer bar review courses or bar preparation programs. BPH is a study aid with sample examinations that are designed to resemble as closely as possible the types of questions that we expect will appear in the MBE. We do not use retired bar examination questions from prior years because even though fundamental legal principles stay the same, the answers may have become outdated due to new or evolving legal principles. BPH takes additional measures to give feedback to the student on each question. In addition to bar review courses, our special program provides the Multistate Bar Exam applicant with a detailed explanation in support of the correct answer, including updated citations to applicable statutory and case law. During their preparation for the exam, the students have the option to look up the citations to see how courts reasoned about similar cases. Because of this structured learning process, law students taking the BPH bar preparation programs have had great success in better understanding the MBE questions, the answers, and the process of legal reasoning. The types of questions that we expect will appear in the MBE.
