

DOWNLOAD PDF NEWSPAPER ABSTRACTS FROM THE PICKENS SENTINEL, 1870-1915

Chapter 1 : Authors starting with B from Southern Historical Press, inc. - theinnatdunvilla.com

So when a researcher is looking for a relative through a birth, a death or a marriage, newspaper abstracts are one of the few sources that the genealogist will have at their disposal. This book consists of abstracts on all the marriages, births and deaths that were contained within this newspaper.

Key to the Genealogical Literature, Volume 41 GPAI is the most comprehensive surname, locality and subject index to current English-language genealogical periodicals available. The material indexed includes genealogies, lineages, source records, and much more. This volume examines the plight, problems, situations, etc. Charles Smith Hamilton, U. Charles Garrison Harker, U. Comprehensive history of the six towns: This volume of news abstracts provides a view of both the everyday life of the colonists of Eastern Connecticut and the extraordinary events of the Revolutionary War. This volume of news abstracts provides a view of everyday life of the citizens of Eastern Connecticut as they experienced the turmoil of the Revolutionary War with all its victories and defeats. Of these people, nearly 10, served in the Union in the Indian Home Guard Regiments and 20, plus served the Confederacy. This book contains photos and information on the forts, maps, location of the battles and the remaining rosters of both Confederate and Union troops. It also contains the treaties between the Confederate States and the Indian Nations. Not included in this index are place names or other names buried within individual records. This index represents marriage records for not only residents of the District of Columbia, but also neighboring Virginia, Maryland, and elsewhere. Our early history is not dead nor is it completely in the past. It is a part of our American heritage that must be nurtured with continued understanding and appreciation for those who made our American dream possible. This book is a must have for those interested in early Maine, Ohio, and New Brunswick history; and indeed, for anyone interested in this time period of early American nation-building. An index to names, places and subjects completes this work. This collection of accounts about the contributions of notable Union women during the Civil War includes: Brady, Kady Brownell, Mrs. Isabella Fogg, and many more. This novel, based on historical fact, follows Gunnery Sgt. Rawlins and his squad from the war against imperial Japanese forces through the Korean War. Weapons, tactics, training, organization, and attitudes are accurately portrayed from both the American and the Japanese perspective. Sonoma County Genealogical Society, Inc. Denotes new title Denotes recently reprinted title Denotes title currently at the printer Denotes temporarily out of stock new title coming soon. Volume I deals with the life of the emigrants in Germany, their voyage to America and their life in Quincy, Illinois. The second is the history of St. Joseph County that includes sketches of its cities, villages and townships; educational, religious, civil, military and political history; portraits of prominent persons and biographies of representative citizens. A treasure trove of information such as family members, birth and death dates, neighbors, religious affiliation, residence, marriage information, land holdings, personal and household property, burial information and occupation. Often slaves are mentioned along with birth dates and family members. Every will abstract contains the date the will was written, filed and probated as well as executors, codicils and renunciations. Also included is an every name index of individuals and land patents. New preface by David Colby Young. Includes a brief history of the centennial; a substantial history of the town; and a very complete collection of family records on the town. Entries are numbered and arranged alphabetically by surname. Indices to names and places complete this volume. Volume I contains an abstract of the actual sexton records of Westfall Cemetery. These records show all of the burials from to the present, along with notations by the caretakers showing dates for birth and death, relationships, and more. Volume II includes obituaries out of the individuals buried there. It contains 2, names of those interred and their surviving relatives-a complete genealogical reference book for Knox Co. Christos Christou and John Anthony Barnhouser. These are detailed abstracts, beginning at the point where the Maryland Calendar of Wills series ends. Combines data from the extant stones with the burial records; 7, deaths and a history of the cemetery. Inscriptions supplemented with obituaries, and town histories. Is your missing relative hiding in these pages? This continuation of the previous compilation of selected extracts includes marriages, deaths, civil appointments, voters, jurors, significant events, and much more. A bibliography of published genealogies of Md. Over titles on Maryland families and over titles on Delaware families. Maryland Colonization Society Manumission Book, Items recorded include the name, age, and employment of manumitted slaves; the name of the grantor of freedom; any conditions attached to the grant; and the date the manumission was recorded. This account of brave men who fought the elements on their quest to make a living on the Bay is intended to be not only an historical abstract but a memorial to all those forgotten people and vessels lost in our Chesapeake Bay. Contains facsimile reprints of original documents and photographs. Bridgewater was the first interior settlement in Old Plymouth Colony, and as such has great historical and genealogical interest. The Barnstable House of Barnstable, Massachusetts. Genealogy of A Real Haunted House. Whether or not you believe in ghosts, the documentation and testimonies surrounding the history of this house raise the question: Do spiritual entities really exist? This story comes to life in and takes you right up to the present day. It covers the history and genealogy of many of the ancient families of the Cape Cod area and documents the owners of the Barnstable house over the years. These abstracts of newspaper articles welcome you into the Newport, Indiana, community and introduce you to the people that lived there, along with an interesting glimpse into the area and the era. This two-volume set is divided into two sections, The first is a history of Indiana, which includes Denotes new title Denotes recently reprinted title Denotes title currently at the printer Denotes temporarily out of stock new title coming soon. Information includes name of owner, improved acreage, unimproved acreage, cash value of the farm, value of farm implements and machinery, and value of livestock. This volume covers the counties of: Missouri became a state on August 21, , which meant free blacks could not be prevented from entering or remaining in the state. Since many other slave states restricted freed slaves and free blacks from staying within their borders, they migrated to Missouri. This is the second volume in this popular series; it gives information from the s to this century, and draws from many sources. Together with Volume 1, this is an excellent research tool. The story of Rayado, on the southwest frontier, as recounted by women and men who were there and recorded their impressions and observations; a detailed look at the locale, daily life, and events in the region. Ohio, as a state, is traced to the end of the 19th century. Volumes A, B, C Full abstracts of deeds. Association of Ex-Members of Squadron A. Has a new historical preface, a biography and genealogical chart on Hubbard, and very extensive notes by Samuel G. Drake which identify people and places, and otherwise greatly expands on the original text. This collection of marriage records gives: The list is in Dutch with some words, phrases and abbreviations translated into English. Also of interest is a list of ministers of the church and the dates they served. Harold E Hinds, Jr. This volume presents a transcription of the surviving serial manuscript records, , for the Town of Wilmington, Essex County, New York. Biographical Sketches [Section V from the original]. In , Congress issued a joint resolution recommending the preparation of local histories of every town and county for preservation in the Library of Congress. From the original publication, which ran over 1, pages, Heritage Books, Inc. A surname index has been added, in which such names as the following appear: Carol Willsey Bell, CG. This latest volume of newspaper abstracts by Mrs Bell includes articles of genealogical and historical interest taken from the New Lisbon Journal, Articles cover such items as marriages, births, and deaths, arrests, accidents, biographical, sketches, petitions, divorces, elopements, court proceedings, and family reunions. An index gives easy-access to names. Don Heinrich Tolzmann, editor. An Historical Symposium by Several Authors. What it lacks in unity it makes up in data. It is a compendium of annals rather than an essay in history. This book provides, in one source, a comprehensive listing of all printed Ohioan genealogies and family histories that have made their way into major library collections across the U. Many of the books deal with multiple families, some with non-Ohio roots. Arranged for ease of use, the entries are presented alphabetically according to surname, with a cross index to family and secondary names to help researchers find surnames that would otherwise remain buried within the text. Also included is a separate bibliography of titles on microfilm at the Library of Congress. Includes records of Haddonfield County which was formed from Gloucester County. Includes marriages, births, deaths and excerpts from the minutes of the two Quaker monthly meetings, Haddonfield and Woodbury--prior to Moravian Church register,

DOWNLOAD PDF NEWSPAPER ABSTRACTS FROM THE PICKENS SENTINEL, 1870-1915

DOWNLOAD PDF NEWSPAPER ABSTRACTS FROM THE PICKENS
SENTINEL, 1870-1915

DOWNLOAD PDF NEWSPAPER ABSTRACTS FROM THE PICKENS SENTINEL, 1870-1915

Chapter 2 : Results | Book Depository

Pickens Sentinel, , Newspaper Abstracts from the. by Judy Ballard. Southern Historical Press, Inc., - Newspaper Abstracts from the.

November 30, , Sarah C. They were included in the list of householders of Rochester city in the census of , which indicates that his wife, Clem, was b. The will of Sarah C. Goss, nephew, Exr; Frank E. Elizabeth Goss, wife of Henry Goss, d. January 10, , age 90yrd, bur beside her husband in Salem cem. This Goss family settled in Liberty Twp. Tobias Goss was not with his family in the census of or His death date has not been located. Of interest is the following news item, Rochester Sentinel, Tues. October 13, , Mary Hoffman; Emanuel Goss m. Rannells, son of John W. He is age 1 year in the census. April 27, , Mary K. Becraft Fulton Co Ind M. Rannells Mar 12, Rannells and his wife Elizabeth, parents of Jacob N. Rannells, were residents of Rochester city, where he was a blacksmith Census There were several children: A nephew, James Rannells, age 19, cigar-maker b. Ohio, was with the John W. Wallace, was a teacher in Rochester Ind in Census. They lived in Rochester city in Census. The will of Margaret D. His wife, Eliza A. Ohio or Penn ca. Wallace" received word from Chicago, Mon. William Wallace came to this country with his parents when 8 years old, first settling at Ithaca, N. He came to Rochester with his brothers, James and Robert, in the spring of , starting their business of general trade under the name of J. He was in the milling business here about , but the mill and contents was destroyed by fire ca. William Wallace 1st m. His wife died in September, Nellie Bell, of Terre Haute Ind. September 24, , and d. She had lived in Rochester until about ten years before her death, when she removed to Chicago. Burial was in Rochester I. See Rochester Sentinel, Mon. His 1st wife was Sarah Merriam, and they were residents of Rochester city in with a dau, Zoe, age 1 year. Rannells, and dau of Wm. The will of Lyman M. Brackett and my mother-in-law Jane Merriam. He names his heirs: Lyman Brackett, Rochester Sentinel, Fri. Brackett died at the family home on West Ninth street "this morning". April 24, at Brandon, Vermont. Brackett October 17, She was a member of D. Charles Brackett, father of Lyman M. Brackett, a surgeon in the 9th Illinois Garr. January 15, , Margaret Wilson , and they resided in Rochester Twp in Census with four children. Anna Wilson, widow age 76, b. Scotland, was also with this family. The children of Dr. December 24, , George W. Holman Fulton Co Ind M. Plank, October 22, "Mary Brackett Plank" m. Plank , son of Dr. Plank ; 5 Charles W. September 23, , Ella M. Margaret Wilson Brackett, widow of Dr. Cowgill, and they were residents of Rochester city in Census , with four Brackett children: Lyman, Rosa, Mary and Charles. By , Edwin E. Cowgill, a lumber dealer , and wife Margaret ae 46, b. Mary Katherine, dau of Wm. Becraft and his wife, Mary A. Becraft, settled in Rochester city by , with four daus: Norris Fulton Co Ind M. Daniel Pratt , and m. Fultz Fulton Co Ind M. Geyer, niece, wife of Claude L. Chestnut, wife of Milo Chestnut, "and sister of first husband, Jacob N. Chestnut, son of Mary E. Chestnut, of Long Beach, California. Further information concerning the family of Dr. After the death of Edwin E. The will of Dr. Gould wife ; and to Hattie Stinson dau. Gould, Rochester Sentinel, Mon. Margaret Wilson was b. Charles Brackett who died leaving her with five small children: Minnie Plank, and Mrs. Cowgill, and two children were born: Cowgill died and three years later she m. Vernon Gould who died two months ago. The will of Margaret B. Plank; "and the children of Rosa B. Williams, Marjorie Williams and Edith B. Williams; "children of Charles W. Hoover may have been the son of Chris Hoover. November 30, , Madge Bernetha See: Faye Wright and Harry Bernetha. This is probably Eliza J. Barnhart, History of Fulton Co Ind, pp. Gainer, a "teacher" was b. Birth places of two of her children indicate that Rebecca Gainer could have married in Ohio, but her family is unkn at this time. Rebecca, age 55, and her son, James T. Ohio were living with the Joseph Osborn family of Richland Twp in Ohio was at that time, with the household of Wm.

Chapter 3 : - Genealogical Indexes and Abstracts of Newspapers - LibGuides at State Library of NC

DOWNLOAD PDF NEWSPAPER ABSTRACTS FROM THE PICKENS SENTINEL, 1870-1915

*Pickens SC Sentinel, , Newspaper Abstracts from the. [Judy Ballard] on theinnatdunvilla.com FREE shipping on qualifying offers. Newspapers are a great source for genealogical research.*

Chapter 4 : Newspaer Abstracts from the Pickens Sentinal, by Judy Ballard (, Hardcover) | eBay

Pickens Sentinel, , Newspaper Abstracts from the. by Judy Ballard. newspaper abstracts are one of the few sources that the genealogist will have at their.

Chapter 5 : FULTON COUNTY IND

*Pickens SC Sentinel, , Newspaper Abstracts from the. by Judy Ballard () [Judy Ballard] on theinnatdunvilla.com FREE shipping on qualifying offers.*

Chapter 6 : Blog - The Ancestor Hunt

Items (articles, comments, etc.) placed on the Newspaper Abstracts website and associated mail lists remain the property of the contributor. By submitting any item to this site, the contributor has granted permission to the Newspaper Abstracts website and associated mail lists to permanently display and archive the item(s) online for free access to the site visitor.

Chapter 7 : Read Microsoft Word - New-Master Catalog Working

Buy Newspaper Abstracts from the Pickens Sentinel, by Judy Ballard (ISBN:) from Amazon's Book Store. Everyday low prices and free delivery on eligible orders.

Chapter 8 : Newspaper Abstracts The Houston Herald

Abstracts from The Pickens Sentinel, Pickens, South Carolina () Call number: S7p Ba The Pickens Sentinel: favorite newspaper of Pickens County: Pickens Court House, South Carolina ().

Chapter 9 : South Carolina Genealogy Books: County Histories" Pickens - York

Our Mission We strive to provide the best service in our industry and stand behind every item we sell. We hope you enjoy visiting our store and are pleased with every purchase you make.