

Chapter 1 : Copyright Fee and Royalty Payment Guide

Â§ Payment and refund of Copyright Office fees. (a) In general. All fees sent to the Copyright Office should be in the form of a money order, check or bank draft.

For an overview of the basic, complementary, and supplementary fee amounts, see the Schedule of Fees. All fees must be paid in Swiss francs. Warning â€” Fee Calculator results are based on information you have provided and the Schedule of Fees in effect at the time the estimate is generated. The estimate is provided for information purposes only. For the most accurate estimate, consult the Fee Calculator immediately before you submit a request or your payment order. If your Office of origin is in a Least Developed Country LDC , in accordance with the list established by the United Nations, you benefit from a 90 percent reduction in the basic fee for your international application. Fee reduction for applications originating from least developed countries

Where to submit fees In general, all international trademark registration fees should be submitted to WIPO. Warning â€” Failure to pay your fees in full will result in the issuance of an irregularity notice. The notice will contain a payment deadline typically 3 months , after which the application will be deemed abandoned. Contact the relevant IP Office to determine how to submit fees directly. Contact information is available through the Member Profiles Database. Current Account, credit card in certain cases , bank transfer, or postal transfer within Europe only. A WIPO reference number is required for certain credit card payments. The relevant 9 to digit WIPO reference number will be indicated in an irregularity notice, if one has been issued. Warning â€” WIPO will confirm credit card payments by email only. An electronic message will be generated and sent automatically to the email address entered with your billing information. WIPO does not issue any other payment receipt or invoice for online credit card payments. If you do not receive this email acknowledgement, please contact us. Options 3 and 4: Trademark number national for registration, international for other purposes Trademark name if available , or verbal elements of mark Name of trademark holder if different than Payer All payments will be processed in Swiss francs CHF. You will be responsible for any additional fees charged by your bank or any intermediary bank. CH51 0 Swift: CH03 8 Swift: WIPO will send a receipt to the Payer within 10 days of the date your bank or postal transfer is received. If you do not receive a WIPO receipt within 10 days of submitting your payment, please contact us. Payment follow-up If you do not receive a payment acknowledgement within 10 days of submitting your payment, please contact us. Refund request To request a refund, please fill in the refund form.

Chapter 2 : Fees Office | University College Cork

Title 37 published on Sep The following are ALL rules, proposed rules, and notices (chronologically) published in the Federal Register relating to 37 CFR Part after this date.

It is the responsibility of the student to assure that full payment is made by the designated deadline. Unfortunately, we cannot offer any payment plans or defer any tuition or fees. Students must also have a financial aid authorization on their student account which allows their financial aid to be used for the payment of fees. Fee maximums are set by TCSG and are subject to change at the beginning of any term. Students are not considered enrolled until all required fees are paid. Questions regarding the payment of fees and refunds should be directed to the Business Office. Students who are delinquent in payment of any financial obligation will not be allowed to register until all delinquent fees are paid. In addition, students who are delinquent in their financial obligations will not be issued grades, transcripts, or student records until all financial obligations are resolved. Fees do not include the price of textbooks, supplies, or tools which may be needed. Students who withdraw from a course after the third instructional day of the semester shall receive no refund. For those students receiving federal financial aid, the technical colleges shall make available Consumer Information that may be found at ifap. Although there will be no refund of tuition and fees after the third instructional day, withdrawing students receiving Federal Pell Grant will have awards adjusted in compliance with the Return to Title IV process R2T4 outlined in the Federal Student Aid Handbook. Refunds are processed by the Business Office. Fees are subject to change each semester. Refunds of Books and Supplies No refunds shall be made for used supplies and equipment such as cosmetology kits, diskettes, tools, and uniforms. The book refund policy shall be prominently displayed in the bookstore. Financial Aid Refunds Students whose financial aid awards exceed the direct cost of tuition and fees will receive a refund. For additional information regarding refunds, students should contact the Business Office. Federal R2T4 Policy The federal government requires colleges to monitor the enrollment activity of each federal financial aid recipients. Therefore, students are sometimes required to repay funds received. Should changes occur after the first three days of the term, there will be no reduction refund of tuition and fee charges. Repayment Requirements Occasionally, a student may receive federal or state funding in error. This may occur due to technical difficulties, human error, incorrect data provided by the student, etc. Please note that federal and state funds received in error, regardless of the reason, must be repaid by the student.

Chapter 3 : Standard fees for copyrights - Canadian Intellectual Property Office

Expedited report (surcharge per hour for first two hours plus $ per hour base fee) $ Each additional hour in addition to the charge for the first two hours (three-hour search is $ + $ + $ + $ + $).

Fees listed in published schedules or student accounts may need to be increased when public funding is inadequate. Therefore, CSU must reserve the right, even after fees are initially charged or initial fee payments are made, to increase or modify any listed fees. All listed fees, other than mandatory systemwide fees, are subject to change without notice, until the date when instruction for a particular semester or quarter has begun. All CSU listed fees should be regarded as estimates that are subject to change upon approval by the Board of Trustees, the Chancellor, or the Presidents, as appropriate. Changes in mandatory systemwide fees will be made in accordance with the requirements of the Working Families Student Fee Transparency and Accountability Act Sections - For specific information on the amount of tuition fees and campus fees you owe and to view your due dates, check your account at My Sac State. Registration Fees per Semester Fall and Spring Graduate Professional Business Fees: Online Safety Training Fee: As part of joining the Sacramento State community, ALL incoming students are required to complete an online sexual violence prevention training. To complete the required tutorials, use your SacLink account information to log on to <https://> For more information please visit Student Health and Counseling. CSSA is the official student voice at the university system, state, and federal level. In addition to supporting student representation, this contribution increases opportunities for students to acquire relevant career skills, apply for scholarships, participate in internships, and advocate on issues that are important to students. Each CSU student will have the ability to elect not to pay the fee for financial, political, or personal considerations each time it is assessed. You will have the ability to opt out each semester through census date "one month into the term. If you do not opt out, and the fee remains unpaid as of census date, then the fee will be waived. Definition of Mandatory Campus Fees: Includes support for scholarships, travel, coaches, and other support for athletic teams. This includes Sports Clubs and Intramural Programs. For example, laboratory experiences which are at least partially sponsored by an academic discipline or department and which are, in the judgment of the IRA Committee and the President, integrally related to its formal instructional offerings. Activities which are considered to be essential to the quality of an educational program and an important instructional experience for any student enrolled in the respective program may be considered instructional related. Basic care is the treatment of common illnesses or injuries. This includes free copies of the student newspaper to students, printing costs and web based services. Those registering during early registration will have fourteen 14 calendar days to pay. Those who register during late registration will have seven 7 days to pay. Those registering as of the first day of instruction will have two 2 days to pay. Those registering the third week of the term will have one 1 day to pay. If you will be signing up for the Installment Payment Plan IPP , your first payment will be due by your original due date. Failure to pay in full by specified due dates may result in the following: The University does not send paper billing statements in the mail. Due dates and amounts will be visible on your account the day after registering. Log in to the Student Center at My Sac State choose the account inquiry link, and then the activity tab. The Installment Payment Plan requires that tuition fees and campus fees are paid in four installments. The down payment is due on your original due date and represents the campus fees Instructional Related Activities, Associated Students Inc. The last day to sign up for the plan is the day before the first due date. Follow the 4-step process below to enroll in the Installment Payment Plan view the step-by-step tutorial: Scroll down to the Finances Section and click on the drop down menu arrow. Follow the on-screen instructions to be put on the plan. You may not use the IPP if you have a fee waiver or a third-party sponsor. If you have registered late, you may owe as much as the first two payments to avoid enrollment cancellation. Missed payments or rejected checks may result in inability to use the Installment Payment Plans for all subsequent semesters, enrollment cancellation, forfeiture of fees already paid, and a hold on your record. If you lose your classes, you may not be able to get them back due to wait lists. Cancellation of your enrollment may result in pro-rated fees charged to your account. Failure to pay may result in additional collection costs, including those associated with referral to a third-party collection agency. Non-resident Tuition Installment Payment Plan: If you are a domestic non-resident or International student, you are eligible for this plan unless you have previously defaulted. The Education Code allows a non-resident student to pay the required non-resident tuition on an installment basis; limited to three equal installment payments. You are responsible for the due dates of the installment plan as stated on your contract. You will not receive paper bills in the mail. At that time you will be required to pay registration fees. Fall Semester Non-Resident Installment due dates: Students who choose to get a OneCard are required to pay this fee to cover the materials, related security, financial, and University wide technology infrastructure used to produce the card. Course Fees - Campus departments may add additional course fees to your account. Most of these fees are added at the time of registration or shortly thereafter. These departments are, but not limited to:

Chapter 4 : Payment of Fees and Refunds - Atlanta Technical College

Where the statutory fee is submitted in the form of a check, the registration of the copyright claim or other record made by the Office is provisional until payment in money is received. In the event the fee is not paid, the registration or other record shall be expunged.

This estimator should serve as a guide, and is as good an estimate as we can prepare, but you should realize that the fees you will actually pay may vary widely from these, depending on the individual circumstances of your copyright. You can expect a copyright registration certificate to be received in six months or less, if you file electronically and all goes well. Most of our clients prefer to file copyright applications on their own, since the process is much simpler than patent or trademark filings. In most cases, this will not pose any problems. In more complicated situations, or if you are not comfortable with the process, we will be happy to file the copyright registration application for you. Legal fees will vary based on the time expended, which will depend on the complexity of the task at hand, etc. For more complicated filings involving multiple samples, computer software, etc. Copyright office filing fees: We can help you with license agreements, non-disclosure agreements, incorporations, etc. Trademark Fees and Patent Fees are on separate fee schedules. Patent and Trademark Office official Patent and Trademark fees are also separately listed. Billing and Fee Policies All fees are due when billed. If paying by credit card, please provide the card number, expiration date, account name and billing address, and an authorization to charge your card for a specific amount. We can accept payment by wire transfer - e-mail for details. Amounts unpaid after 30 days will be charged a service charge at the rate of 1. All government fees must be paid by the client when due - we cannot advance fees for clients. The charges listed on this page do not include direct out-of-pocket costs incurred on behalf of clients. Expenses are billed at cost - we do not mark up third party bills. Fees are subject to change without notice. Back to the Copyright Page.

Chapter 5 : Payments and fees - Canadian Intellectual Property Office

Note: Citations are based on reference standards. However, formatting rules can vary widely between applications and fields of interest or study. The specific requirements or preferences of your reviewing publisher, classroom teacher, institution or organization should be applied.

Chapter 6 : [USC03] 17 USC Copyright Office fees

Below, the Office describes the legal authority for establishment and adjustment of its fees, describes the overarching methodology employed by the Office in studying its costs and establishing a new fee schedule, and describes and provides justification for each of the Office's proposed fee adjustments.

Chapter 7 : Fees and Payments - Madrid System

Loading, Please Wait! This may take a second or two. Read previous post: Read This Before Finding A Copyright Infringement Attorney.

Chapter 8 : Fees, Deadlines & Refunds

Important information to know: Special theinnatdunvilla.com following conditions applying to this type of payment. The owner of copyrighted material grants permission to reproduce, sell, publish, distribute, and/or perform in exchange for the payment of a fee.

Chapter 9 : Fees | U.S. Copyright Office

DOWNLOAD PDF PAYMENT AND REFUND OF COPYRIGHT OFFICE FEES

Pay fees and learn more about filing fees and other payments. Access the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) systems you need for filing and paying online, and for payment information.