Chapter 1 : Psychiatric Nursing Certification | allnurses

Course Description. This seminar is designed to provide the healthcare provider with a comprehensive review of Psychiatric-Mental Health Nursing Principles.

You have learned a lot in one or two short years and the amount of content covered by the exam is extensive. Fortunately, there are a few excellent resources when it comes to helping with your exam preparation. Review books and live courses are the best way to help direct your certification studies. Study materials narrow down content to the most commonly covered areas on the NP certification exam making you study more efficiently. For some students, using review books alone will be sufficient. But, for others the accountability and attention required by attending a live review course is a must. Which live nurse practitioner certification exam review courses are best? The company conducts seminars across the country, typically in major cities. For students living in other areas, or who cannot attend seminars in person, live internet-streamed versions of courses are also available. Depending on the specialty, review courses range from about 20 to 30 hours in length and are held over a three day period. Barkley and Associates Barkley and Associates offers excellent review materials for nurse practitioner certification as evidenced by a first-time pass rate of over 99 percent on the nurse practitioner certification exam by live review course attendees. The company does give a significant discount for signing up early, so be sure not to delay your enrollment. Courses include a question Diagnostic Readiness Test to help you assess your preparedness for the certification exam. Courses last two to three days depending on specialty and are held 15 cities across the country. Included in the course are two, question practice exams. Course content and practice exams do the trick when it comes to preparing NPs for the certification exam, the APEA boasts a 99 percent first-time pass rate for live course attendees. Students who do not pass the exam may take the review course again, free of charge. American Nurses Credentialing Center The American Nurses Credentialing Center offers a few live review seminars for the nurse practitioner certification exam. Some review courses are live in the traditional sense and take place in major cities across the country while others are delivered in a convenient webinar format. In-person review courses are between two and four days long depending on specialty. Webinars are hosted as 90 minute weekly lectures taking place over a ten week period. Have you taken a nurse practitioner certification review course?
