Walter Becker was my friend, my writing partner and my bandmate since we met as students at Bard College in We started writing nutty little tunes on an upright piano in a small sitting room in the lobby of Ward Manor, a mouldering old mansion on the Hudson River that the college used as a dorm. We liked a lot of the same things: Also soul music and Chicago blues. Luckily, he was smart as a whip, an excellent guitarist and a great songwriter. He was cynical about human nature, including his own, and hysterically funny. His habits got the best of him by the end of the seventies, and we lost touch for a while. In the eighties, when I was putting together the NY Rock and Soul Review with Libby, we hooked up again, revived the Steely Dan concept and developed another terrific band. I intend to keep the music we created together alive as long as I can, both with the Steely Dan band. Her ganske kort om deres oprindelse og musik: Duoen flyttede til New York City i Looking for keyboardist and bassist. Must have jazz chops! Assholes need not apply. Og hurtigt begyndte bandet at udgive albums med Gary Katz som producer. Albummet Katy Lied var den store skuffelse. Lydkvaliteten var perfekt indtil mixingen. Efter min mening er det Steely Dans 3 bedste albums. I blev Becker og Fagen gode venner igen, Becker producerede Fagens 2. Samarbejdet bestod udelukkende i live-koncerter â€” ingen perfektionistiske studiealbums. Men i kom albummet Two Against Nature som gav Steely Dan 4 grammies, intet mindre, og i Everything Must Go der ikke blev helt den samme succes. Listen er dog min egen Listen nedenfor har en del live-videoer af sangene. Singlen blev en succes â€” en 6. Melodien er god, det swinger, det er groovy, og sangen har noget ganske medrivende over sig, dum eller ej. Fagen har denne her holdning til sangen: I just have listening fatigue. Kid Charlemagne maj er fra Steely Dans 5. Linket er til en live-version. In the late seventies, Steely Dan made records by pushing a revolving crew of monster session dudes through take after take, which yielded endless jaw-dropping guitar solos. Her slutningen af sangen: My back to the wall A victim of laughing chance This is for me The essence of true romance Sharing the things we know and love With those of my kind Libations.
