Although travelling from South Africa is longer, it was worth it. We travelled via Dubai. It was 7 and half hours from S. A to Dubai then 5 and half hours to Italy. Italy is a beautiful country. I was on a 9 day Cosmos bus tour across Italy which was very interesting. Day 1, Our first night of tour we visited Rome city centre, Trevi fountain, Piazza Barberini and ended our night with dinner in one of the local restaurants, and the food was perfect. It was tiring because we did a lot of walking and it was very hot. My shoes even gave up. My advice is wear proper walking shoes when doing this tour. There is a lot of walking. Day 3, we visited city of Orvieto in the Umbria region. I was so impressed with the traditional Italian building style. The place is beautiful. I was so amazed. We also visited Siena in the evening and I was so amazed of the whole thing. Italy is beautiful and full of history. It is a must see. My highlights were Orvieto and Siena. Again you walk a lot going uphill and downhill, no wonder Italians have great bodies. I travelled to Italy from 14 June - 24 June. Day 4, we visited San-gimignano where we got to taste the best gelato ice cream. We stopped at Greve for some wine tasting and ended our evening in Montecatini with a Tuscan dinner full of fun, music and dance. What a night it was. The food was delicious. We visited leaning tower and the Square of Miracles. It was an awesome feeling to finally see leaning tower of Pisa. We ended our evening with a dinner in Venice. Day 7, We visited Venice again and spend the day there. I enjoyed the Gondola ride and shopping. The place was crowded though with tourists. Day 8, We woke up and had breakfast and prepare to head back to Rome. We stopped in Assisi where St. I met a lot of people from different countries. It was a trip to remember. Overall the tour was amazing and exceeded my expectations. Our bus driver Rocco was awesome and our Tour Director Lorella was amazing. They will be missed. I enjoyed Italian food, very nice.
