

Chapter 1 : Training For Service: A Survey Of The Bible Leader's Guide by Orrin Root

Training for Service is one of the best Training books I have come across.. I originally ordered it to make copies of a few pages for Bible study because I had written in my original copy I had from about 15 years prior.

Ezekiel describes the physical resurrection of Israel in two ways. Another name for Jerusalem is "The Lord is there". Ezekiel describes the Millennial Temple. The book of Daniel contains 12 chapters. Daniel is the prophet of the exile. Daniel means God is Judge. The Lord Jesus Christ states that Daniel was a prophet. Daniel is written in the Hebrew and Aramaic languages. Daniel was of royal descent. Daniel is greatly beloved of God or highly esteemed. Daniel rose to the highest position in the kingdoms of Babylon, Media, and Persia though a captive because he never compromised. Apocalypse means, an unveiling of the secret purposes of God. Outline of the Minor Prophets: There are 12 minor prophets. The first 9 books are pre-exile. The last 3 books are post-exile. The Jews considered the minor prophets to be 1 book. The minor prophets are: Hosea was the last prophet to the north. Hosea called the northern kingdom by three names Israel, Samaria, and Ephraim. Of the last 6 kings on the throne in the Northern Kingdom only 1 died of natural causes. The central theme of the book of Joel is the day of the Lord. Peter quotes Joel 2: The Valley of Jehosaphat Amos: The only place the word "chapel" is used in the Bible is found in Amos 7: Amos predicted an earthquake. Obadiah pronounces judgment on Edom. Edom is Esau - Gen. The Edomites would not let Israel pass through the Land on their journey from Egypt.
